

Come and hear from leaders in the forefront of the D & I initiatives in Hong Kong.
Presentations, panel discussions and a learning taster from a top “women in leadership” programme.

Advancing Female Leaders in Asia

Presentation of the Research Findings – “Advancing Female Leaders in Asia”*

For male leadership teams who know they need to make diversity work
For female leaders who want to accelerate their career development

Panel discussion with audience interaction

Answering the tough questions – persistent barriers to gender equality
Sharing solutions which work – small victories and big steps

Becoming an influential woman leader: learning to lead with courage and confidence

“Discovering what limits us as women”
Finding our inner strengths to stand up and be seen for who we are

21. 06. 2019

2:00 -5:00 pm

HKGCC

Theatre A, 22/F United Centre, 95 Queensway

English

HK$ 380

* MRG® and MDS® joined forces to conduct a comprehensive study of gender and leadership in Asia. The 20 page report gives substantial evidence of the different strengths which men and women bring to leadership. Women really do have leadership strengths which set them apart from men. But there is also a clear development agenda - where women need to move into leadership areas traditionally dominated by men. The research makes clear recommendations for action.

Key Contributors:

Angie Wong

MDS
Executive Coach, Designer
“Integral Growth for Women in Leadership”

Debbie Mannas

Sun Life
Financial Asia
Head of OD
and Talent Asia

Malongna Chein

Veolia
Director of Learning and Development

Margaret Choi

Swiss Re
Head of Organisation and People
Development APAC
Director
Human Resource

Nikki Davies

Credit Suisse
Head of D & I
Campus Recruitment
Diversity & Inclusion
APAC

Robin Ball

MDS
Managing Director

Steven Ng

Baker McKenzie
APAC Regional Head of Leadership and Learning

Hong Kong | Beijing | Shanghai | Taipei | Singapore
www.mdshongkong.com www.mdsbeijing.com

Key Contributors

